AMERICA'S TOP WILDLIFE ARTIST, JIM HAUTMAN, ILLUSTRATES THE SERIES

Perhaps the most renowned wildlife artist in America, Jim Hautman brings his award-winning talent to our coin collection. He is a two-time winner (1990–91 and 1995–96) of the Federal Duck Stamp contest, long regarded as the most prestigious wildlife art competition in America. In winning the 1995–96 Federal competition, Hautman set a new record by becoming the first artist to receive a perfect judges' score. At the same time, he also received the Peoples' Choice award.

Jim Hautman's other accomplishments include over 25 limited-edition releases, first prize in 11 conservation stamp contests, and exhibits at the Smithsonian Institution in Washington, D.C. The sale of his art has resulted in $20 million raised for wildlife habitat.

On the international front, Jim Hautman was commissioned to paint the 1990 Australian duck stamp and was named the 1990 Ducks Unlimited International Artist of the Year.

It is only fitting that graceful "Dolphins" kick off the four-coin collector series. So beautiful and graceful, the marine mammals continue to fascinate us with human-like intelligence and friendliness. Dolphins typically "steal the show" at marine parks across the country with hoop dives and synchronized routines, much to the enjoyment of a cheering crowd. At home in Gulf waters, dolphins can be seen swimming aside shrimp and fishing boats, hoping for a taste of the day's catch. A favorite sight to most everyone, the "Dolphins" will be a keepsake for years to come.

SHRIMP BOAT

The most important fishing industry in the United States is thriving by the diligence of the "Shrimp Boat," the next image in our collector coin series. The majestic vessel is often seen steadily combing the Gulf waters during shrimp season, its riggings forming a beautiful silhouette when framed against a sunset. Although most appreciated for the seafood it provides, the spirit and beauty of the boat itself is a favorite subject among artists and photographers alike. For all of us, it is a treasured symbol of life along the coast and will be cherished as a featured image in the series.

BILOXI LIGHTHOUSE

A symbol of our nautical heritage, the "Biloxi Lighthouse" decorates our third Gulf Coast Collector Coin. The tower is a monument of strength, a watchful eye for all those traveling by sea. Once vital to the safety of seafarers, the soft glow of its light stretches for miles preventing groundings or collisions of ships passing in the night. Lighthouses have always attracted curious groups of people wishing to explore its architecture. The upward-winding staircase leading to the tiny quarters of the legendary lighthouse keeper always makes an exciting tour.

The fourth and final coin in the series features the remarkable "Brown Pelican." Today the official state bird of Louisiana can be seen in larger numbers along the northern Gulf Coast than during the time of its dramatic decline in the 1950's. Cherished by bird lovers and coast natives, the Brown Pelican is often seen poised in a statue-like manner atop pier pilings along the beaches. Its long mahogany-colored neck and large bill characterize the silent but picturesque Brown Pelican. And although still an endangered species in Mississippi, it flourishes in 24 karat gold for our Gulf Coast Collector Coin Series.

UNITED STATES LEGEND, FRANK GASPARRO, DESIGNS FOR GRAND CASINOS

Frank Gasparro, perhaps most noted for his Lincoln Memorial design on the reverse side of the Lincoln cent, began his career at the United States Mint in December of 1942. Frank went on to design the reverse side of the world's most popular coin, the Kennedy half dollar. Later he designed both the front and back of the Eisenhower and Susan B. Anthony dollars before retiring as Chief Sculptor-Engraver of the United States in 1981.

Although noted for coin design, Frank Gasparro also has designed an impressive list of medals including the Nation's official Bicentennial Medal, the Mint Presidential medals from Presidents Johnson to Carter, and most recently the $5 gold piece honoring the 1996 Olympics in Atlanta.

It is an honor to have the "Norman Rockwell of American Coinage" design the reverse side of the 1995-96 Gulf Coast Collector Coin Series.
